MEMORANDUM FOR: Members, Intelligence Producers Council

25X1

FROM: [redacted]

Chief, Intelligence Producers Council Staff

25X1

SUBJECT: Creation of a Consumer Survey Action Group

25X1

1. The 1988 Intelligence Consumer Survey identified a number of Intelligence Community shortcomings and, as a result, the Intelligence Producers Council recommended several courses of action to improve producer-consumer relations. [redacted]

25X1

3. The first meeting is scheduled for Thursday, 27 April 1989, 1000-1200, [redacted] Please ask your representative to be prepared to address the following topics:

- a. Prioritization of the recommendations and identified needs and concerns of policymakers.
- b. Identification of recommendations and policymakers' needs that are beyond the purview of the IPC.
- c. Ideas on a Community orientation briefing for senior officials.
- d. Any new areas for follow-on action your organization would like to propose. [redacted]

4. The Action Group will meet as necessary to ensure that we will have some positive results to report to the DCI, the DDCI, and the IPC within six months. My objective is for the IPC to implement a series of actions that will improve consumer-producer relations and lay the groundwork for quick response to changing policymaker needs. [redacted]

5. Your representative should pass their clearances to the IC Staff (Attention: IPC Staff) if they are not permanently certified. [redacted] [redacted] is my point of contact. [redacted]
